'Shiny Sheet' coverage music to Philbin's ears

Yes, that was the Shiny Sheet in Regis Philbin's manicured hands on Tuesday's Live With Regis and Kelly.

Reej, who is an avid reader of the Shiny Sheet when he's in town, gave the Newspaper of Record a coast-to-coast, live network television shout-out during his dialogue with his co-host.

The discussion focused on Jimmy Buffett, Kenny Chesney, Ann Hampton Callaway, Michael Feinstein and Reej's long, music-filled weekend in Palm Beach.

But when he got to the part about Donald Trump's vocal performance with Jennifer Hudson at the Dana-Farber bash on Saturday night, he deferred to the Shiny Sheet's reportage.

■ Life's a cabaret — Speaking of music, this past week was a big one at The Colony. On Monday, cabaret divas Marilyn Maye (who had just wrapped up her Royal Room stand), Ann Hampton Callaway (who was beginning her five-day gig) and Faith Prince, who recorded her Live at The Royal Room CD there last year — got together for a divas' Valentine dine.

After closing her gig Saturday night at the Royal Room, Callaway joined the crowd in the hotel's Polo restaurant to hear the Switzer Trio. During the evening, she grabbed Clint Holmes and joined the trio for some that's-the-way-it's-done scat.

In the audience? The aforementioned Regis Philbin and Michael Feinstein.
